Statutory Adjudication was introduced under the Construction Industry Payment & Adjudication Act 2012 (CIPAA 2012) as a new mechanism for speedy dispute resolution of payment disputes under a construction contract.

Since the coming into operation of the Act on 15 April 2014, the Kuala Lumpur Regional Centre for Arbitration (KLRC) as the official adjudication authority under the Act has administered over 99 adjudication matters.

This talk aims to provide construction professionals especially the engineers and architects on the latest development of CIPAA 2012, adjudication process, practice and procedure of the Act and challenges faced by adjudicators in dealing with an adjudication matter.
