DEVELOPMENTS IN UK FAMILY ARBITRATION

His Honour Judge Cryan and Miss Pamela Scriven QC will set out how the Institute of Family Law Arbitrators was founded and in a short time has become a successful provider of arbitration in a family context. They will deal with the legal context of arbitration in relation to both financial and children matters; the relationship between arbitration and the Family Courts; the qualification and regulation of Arbitrators; and the rules and conduct of arbitrations.

For more information, please contact Business Development Team of KLRCA, Phone: +603 2271 1000, Email: events@klrca.org

ADMISSION IS FREE. LIMITED SEATS AVAILABLE.

For registration, please email your details below to events@klrca.org or fax to +603-2271 1010 by 26 Aug 2016

Full Name: ____________________________
Company/Organisation: ____________________________
Designation: ____________________________
Address: ____________________________
Tel: ____________________________ Fax: ____________________________ Email: ____________________________

Judge Cryan was Called to the Bar in 1970, developing a wide-ranging practice, which included Family Law and civil and criminal litigation. He was appointed a Circuit Judge and authorised to sit as Judge of the High Court, Family Division in 1996. Judge Cryan became a member and then chairman of the Centre for Child and Family Law Reform, a research and study centre sponsored by The City Law School. He remains a member of the Centre in an emeritus capacity. He accepted the Chairmanship of The City Law School’s Advisory Board in 2009, and was granted an Honorary Doctor of Laws in 2012. He was appointed the Reader of the Honourable Society of the Inner Temple in 2015 and became Treasurer (Chairman) of the Inner Temple for 2016.

Pamela Scriven QC was called to the Bar in 1970 and specializes in all areas of children’s law, both public and private. She has dealt with some of the longest and most difficult cases in this area. She has a great deal of experience in cases where there are allegations of alleged physical injury of all types, including non-accidental head injury, “unknown cause” cases, and of alleged factitious illness. She is well used to the analysis and scrutiny of complex expert evidence. She is also experienced in cases where there are extremely complex allegations of sexual abuse, including cases where there are multiple allegations of abuse by unrelated complainants (alleged paedophile rings). Her wide experience includes cases of medical treatment of children/mentally defective adults, of child abduction and the international elements of family disputes, and of adoption.

Honey Tan Lay Ean is a graduate of Buckingham University. She obtained her LLM from Warwick University, and is a member of The Honourable Society of the Middle Temple. She is a member of the Malaysian Bar Council where she serves as the Chairperson of the Family Law Committee, and Co-Chairperson of the International Malaysian Law Conference 2016 Committee. Honey is also a member of LAWASIA where she is active in the Family Law section.

For more information, please contact Business Development Team of KLRCA, Phone: +603 2271 1000, Email: events@klrca.org