As arbitration increases to gain favour amongst business users, there is greater concern that arbitrators need to be scrupulously independent and impartial.

- What are the applicable institutional and domestic law standards?
- Why is the relevance (if any) of the IBA Guidelines and why were they amended in 2014?
- How should arbitrators respond to questions and challenges related to conflict of interest?
- What is the approach of ICSID?
- What is the approach of the English Courts?
