Culture plays an important role in international arbitration as cases often involve parties from different countries (and consequently, different legal systems and traditions). Our evening seminar will examine the effects of culture on arbitral proceedings, offering unique practitioner insights from the Chinese and European perspectives. The panelists will discuss culture in international arbitration in both the investor-state and commercial arbitration domains.

Tan Sri Cecil Abraham, Senior Partner with Cecil Abraham & Partners, is a Barrister-At-Law of the Middle Temple and is a Bencher of the Inn. He is a graduate of Queen Mary College, University of London. He is a Chartered Arbitrator and a Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators U.K., Malaysian Institute of Arbitrators, Singapore Institute of Arbitrators and the Australian Centre for International Commercial Arbitration Limited. He is an Advisory Member of the International Court of Commercial Arbitration (ICCA). He has been involved as Arbitrator and Counsel in more than 100 arbitrations under the ICC, SIAC, KLRCA, LCIA and ICSID Rules and also in Ad Hoc arbitrations. He is a Member of the ICSID panel. He has represented the Government of Malaysia in an ICSID arbitration and is presently involved in arbitration and annulment proceedings under the ICSID Convention. He also acts as counsel in Bilateral Investment Treaties. He is also a Member of the Permanent Court of Arbitration. He is Malaysia's representative to the ICC Court of Arbitration. He was a former Member of the LCIA Court.

Ing Loong Yang is a partner in the Hong Kong office of Latham & Watkins. Mr. Yang's practice focuses on international arbitration and complex commercial litigation in Asia, particularly on cross-border disputes involving Greater China.

He has represented clients in numerous international arbitrations under the rules of CIETAC, SIAC, ICC, HKIAC and UNCITRAL, as well as in the Hong Kong Courts. Mr. Yang is a Solicitor-Advocate of the Hong Kong Courts, with full rights of audience in the Hong Kong Courts.

Sophie Lamb is a partner in the London office of Latham & Watkins and global Co-chair of the firm's International Arbitration Practice.

Ms. Lamb is widely acknowledged as one of the leading practitioners of her generation. She is a trusted advisor to boards of public companies, to investors and to sovereign nations, routinely engaged in the most complex, high value and/or reputationally significant disputes of the moment. Her cases have featured in The Lawyer's top 20 cases of the year and she is listed as one of the UK's most influential and inspirational lawyers in their Hot 100 list for her successes "in billion dollar, high profile, politically sensitive and often market-shaping arbitration cases and related court trials."
