 - (b) the Respondent has failed to deliver its response to the notice of arbitration or its statement of defence, or the Claimant has failed to submit a defence to a counterclaim or a defence to a set-off, the Arbitral Tribunal shall order that the proceedings continue, without treating such failure in itself as an admission of the allegations contained therein.
- 30.2. If a Party, duly notified under the AIAC Arbitration Rules, fails to appear at a hearing without showing sufficient cause, the Arbitral Tribunal may proceed with the arbitration.
- 30.3. If a Party, duly invited by the Arbitral Tribunal to produce documents, exhibits or other evidence, fails to do so in accordance with the Procedural

- 34.3. Where the Arbitral Tribunal re-opens the arbitral proceedings pursuant to Rule 32.5, the time limit for submitting the draft Final Award to the AIAC for technical review shall recommence.
- 34.4. The technical review shall entail the Director drawing the Arbitral Tribunal's attention to any perceived irregularity as to the form of the draft Final Award, including any matters relating to the procedural history, general content issues, and any clerical, typographical or computational errors, without affecting the Arbitral Tribunal's liberty of decision on merits.
- 34.5. If there are any perceived irregularities pursuant to Rule 34.4, the Arbitral Tribunal shall resubmit the draft Final Award to the AIAC within 10 days from the date on which the Arbitral Tribunal is notified of such irregularities, subject to any extension granted by the Director, if requested by the Arbitral Tribunal.
- 34.6. If there are no perceived irregularities pursuant to Rule 34.4 or upon completion of the technical review pursuant to Rule 34.5, the AIAC shall notify

- 36.2. The Arbitral Tribunal is not obliged to give reasons for a Consent Award.

- 36.3. Within 60 days of the notification of the settlement and prior to the delivery of the Consent Award upon the Parties, the Arbitral Tribunal shall submit the draft Consent Award to the AIAC for technical review, in respect of which Rules 34.4–34.6 and Rule 35 shall apply.
- 36.4. If the Parties do not request a Consent Award, the parties shall inform the AIAC that a settlement has been reached and the Arbitral Tribunal shall issue an order for the termination of the proceedings.
- 36.5. If, prior to the delivery of the Final Award, the continuation of the arbitral proceedings becomes unnecessary or impossible for any reason other than the Parties' agreement to settle the dispute, the Arbitral Tribunal shall, after consulting the Parties, issue an order for the termination of the arbitral proceedings, in whole or in part, if it considers such termination appropriate.
- 36.6. Notwithstanding that a settlement has been reached or that the Arbitral Tribunal has otherwise terminated the arbitral proceedings, the arbitration shall only be deemed concluded and the Arbitral Tribunal discharged upon full settlement of the costs of the arbitration as determined by the Director pursuant to Schedule 2, Clause 1.1(i).
- 36.7. Copies of the order for the termination of the arbitral proceedings shall be signed by the Arbitral Tribunal and delivered to the Parties and the AIAC by the Arbitral Tribunal as soon as practicable.

- 40.2. Where Rules 37–39 apply, neither the Arbitral Tribunal nor the AIAC shall be entitled to any additional fees.
- 40.3. The Director shall fix the Arbitral Tribunal's fees and the AIAC Administrative Fee pursuant to Schedule 1(A) for international arbitrations (USD scale) and Schedule 1(B) for domestic arbitrations (RM scale), based on the amount in dispute comprising the value of any claims, counterclaims and set-offs.
- 40.4. Where claims or counterclaims are unquantified, the Director shall determine the amount in dispute, after consulting the Arbitral Tribunal and the Parties, for the purpose of the deposit calculation.
- 40.5. Notwithstanding the above, all Parties and the Arbitral Tribunal are at liberty to agree on the fees and expenses of the Arbitral Tribunal within 30 days from the constitution of the Arbitral Tribunal ("Fee Agreement"), the scope of which shall be limited to:

- (a) the quantum and method of calculation of the Arbitral Tribunal's fees and expenses; and

- 40.6. The Arbitral Tribunal shall, as soon as practicable, inform the Director that the Fee Agreement has been executed, and where it is executed after the 30-day time limit has expired, the Fee Agreement shall be subject to approval by the Director.
- 40.7. The deposits towards the costs of the arbitration, irrespective of the existence of a Fee Agreement, shall be remitted to and held by the AIAC, and any interest earned on the deposits shall be retained by the AIAC.

Rule 41

Deposits

- 41.1. Following the AIAC's confirmation of the registration of the arbitration pursuant to Rule 7, the AIAC shall request a provisional advance deposit ("PAD") to cover approximately 30% of the estimated costs of the arbitration.
- 41.2. If the amount in dispute is unquantified at the time the Registration Request is submitted to the AIAC, the PAD shall be fixed at USD10,000 for an international arbitration and RM10,000 for a domestic arbitration.
- 41.3. In the event the PAD has not been paid in full:
 - (a) the AIAC shall give the other Party an opportunity to make the required payment within a specified time limit;
 - (b) if the Arbitral Tribunal has yet to be constituted, after 30 days of the AIAC's final reminder for the PAD, the AIAC may treat the claims for which the PAD remains outstanding, as withdrawn without prejudice; or

- (c) if the Arbitral Tribunal has been constituted, without affecting the liberty of the Parties and the Arbitral Tribunal to execute any Fee Agreement pursuant to Rule 40.5, the arbitral proceedings shall not proceed until the PAD is paid in full.
- 41.4. Following the first preliminary meeting or the delivery of the first Procedural Order, the AIAC shall request an advance preliminary deposit ("APD") to cover the remainder of the estimated costs of the arbitration.
- 41.5. If the claims and counterclaims are unquantified at the time the first Procedural Order is delivered, the Director shall determine the amount in dispute, after consulting the Arbitral Tribunal and the Parties, for the purpose of fixing the APD.
- 41.6. During the course of the arbitral proceedings, the AIAC may request additional deposits ("AD") from the Parties, subject to changes to the amount in dispute, the estimated expenses of the arbitrators or any other factors.
- 41.7. The PAD, APD and AD shall be borne by the Parties in equal shares and shall be payable by the Parties to the AIAC within 21 days upon receiving the request from the AIAC.
- 41.8. Notwithstanding the above, where counterclaims are submitted by the Respondent, the Director may, in his discretion, fix separate deposits on costs for the claims and counterclaims. When the Director has fixed separate deposits on costs, each of the Parties shall pay the deposit corresponding to its claims.
- 41.9. In the event that either the APD or the AD has not been paid in full:
- (a) the AIAC shall give the other Party an opportunity to make the required payment within a specified time limit; and

- (b) after 30 days of the AIAC's final reminder, if the requested deposits remain outstanding, the Arbitral Tribunal may, after consulting the Director, suspend or terminate the arbitral proceedings, or any part thereof.
- 41.10. Notwithstanding the above, the Director shall have the discretion to determine the proportion of deposits required to be paid by the Parties, including such instances where the Director has fixed separate deposits on costs for the claims and counterclaims.
- 41.11. The AIAC shall have the discretion to extend any deadline for payment of the deposits.
- 41.12. The AIAC may apply the deposits towards the AIAC Administrative Fee, the Arbitral Tribunal's fees and the Arbitral Tribunal's out-of-pocket and per diem expenses in such manner and at such times as the Director deems appropriate.
- 41.13. Following the closure of proceedings pursuant to Rule 32, where there is a change in the amount in dispute, the AIAC shall undertake an adjustment of the deposits to reflect the correct amount in dispute.
- 41.14. After the Final Award has been delivered, or following the settlement or termination of the arbitral proceedings pursuant to Rule 36, the AIAC shall render an accounting of the deposits received to the Parties and return any unexpended balance to the Parties based on the Parties' respective contributions.
