MAKING ARBITRATION WORK IN A CHANGING WORLD: A PACIFIC VIEW

- International law, the Rule of Law and the importance of solving international disputes peaceably
- Climate Change Disputes and the Rights of Affected Populations
- International arbitration in a Brave Uncertain New World
- An arbitration centre for the South Pacific

Answers to thorny issues:

- Should appeals with leave of the court be abolished?
- Do we need emergency arbitrators?
- Should we restrict challenges by having an indemnity cost rule?
- Confidentiality – is it a necessary evil?

Korero – A Touch of Kiwi

- AMINZ Arbitration Appeals Tribunal
- Arbitration of Trust Disputes
- Treaty of Waitangi and resolution of indigenous disputes
- New frontiers in the Pacific and Antarctica
