

BUILDING YOUR CAREER IN INTERNATIONAL ARBITRATION

How to get your first appointment as an arbitrator
and other tips

25.OCT.2018
SEM 1, AIAC PAVILLION
6.30- 7.30PM

ABOUT THE TALK

During the session, the speaker will focus on providing tips to first build a professional career in the field of arbitration and then to get one's first appointment as arbitrator. He will also explain his personal experiences about how he got involved in international arbitration and received his first appointments as arbitrator. The session is supposed to be interactive, thus participants will be encouraged to share their own experiences and ask questions or provide comments during the entire session.

Victor Bonnin Reynes

Victor Bonnin is a Spanish lawyer specialised in international arbitration. He is also a solicitor admitted in England and Wales. Victor has not only a Spanish and English law background but also a Swiss law background and speaks Spanish, English, French, German and Portuguese.

Before founding his own arbitration practice, VBArbitration, to serve as arbitrator, Victor worked in the arbitration department of global firms such as Allen & Overy, Skadden Arps or Garrigues.

Victor has an extensive experience in international commercial arbitration, investment arbitration and sports arbitration. He has acted in more than 50 cases as arbitrator, counsel or secretary of arbitral tribunals, in ad hoc cases and institutional arbitrations under the rules of several institutions such as the ICC, LCIA, AAA, Swiss Chambers, ICSID, Madrid Court of Arbitration, Spanish Court of Arbitration, etc).

Victor has been listed in the Who's Who 2017 and 2018 Under 45 Future Arbitration Leaders lists.

Admission is free. Limited seats available. Please register at events@aiac.world

Full Name: _____

Company/Organisation: _____

Designation: _____

Address: _____

Tel: _____ Fax: _____ Email: _____