The Secretary for Justice of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region, H.E. Paul TK Lam, SBS, SC, JP will lead a high-level mission to Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia in September 2024, aiming to strengthen collaboration between Hong Kong and Malaysia on business in general and in the field of legal and dispute resolution.

A Seminar will be staged on 26 September 2024 (Thursday) at Four Seasons in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia. The Seminar will shed light on the latest legal and business environment in Hong Kong and the city's unique and profound strengths as the gateway to the robust China and Asian markets, as well as the international legal and dispute resolution services hub and the risk management centre in the Asia-Pacific region, for businesses looking to expand their ventures.

Following the Seminar, a Networking Reception will be hosted to provide participants with the extended opportunities for more in-depth networking and exchanges with the Hong Kong delegation.

Join us at this premier event with free admission to exchange views with our Hong Kong legal and business professionals!

DISTINGUISHED SPEAKERS

H.E. Paul TK Lam, SBS, SC, JP

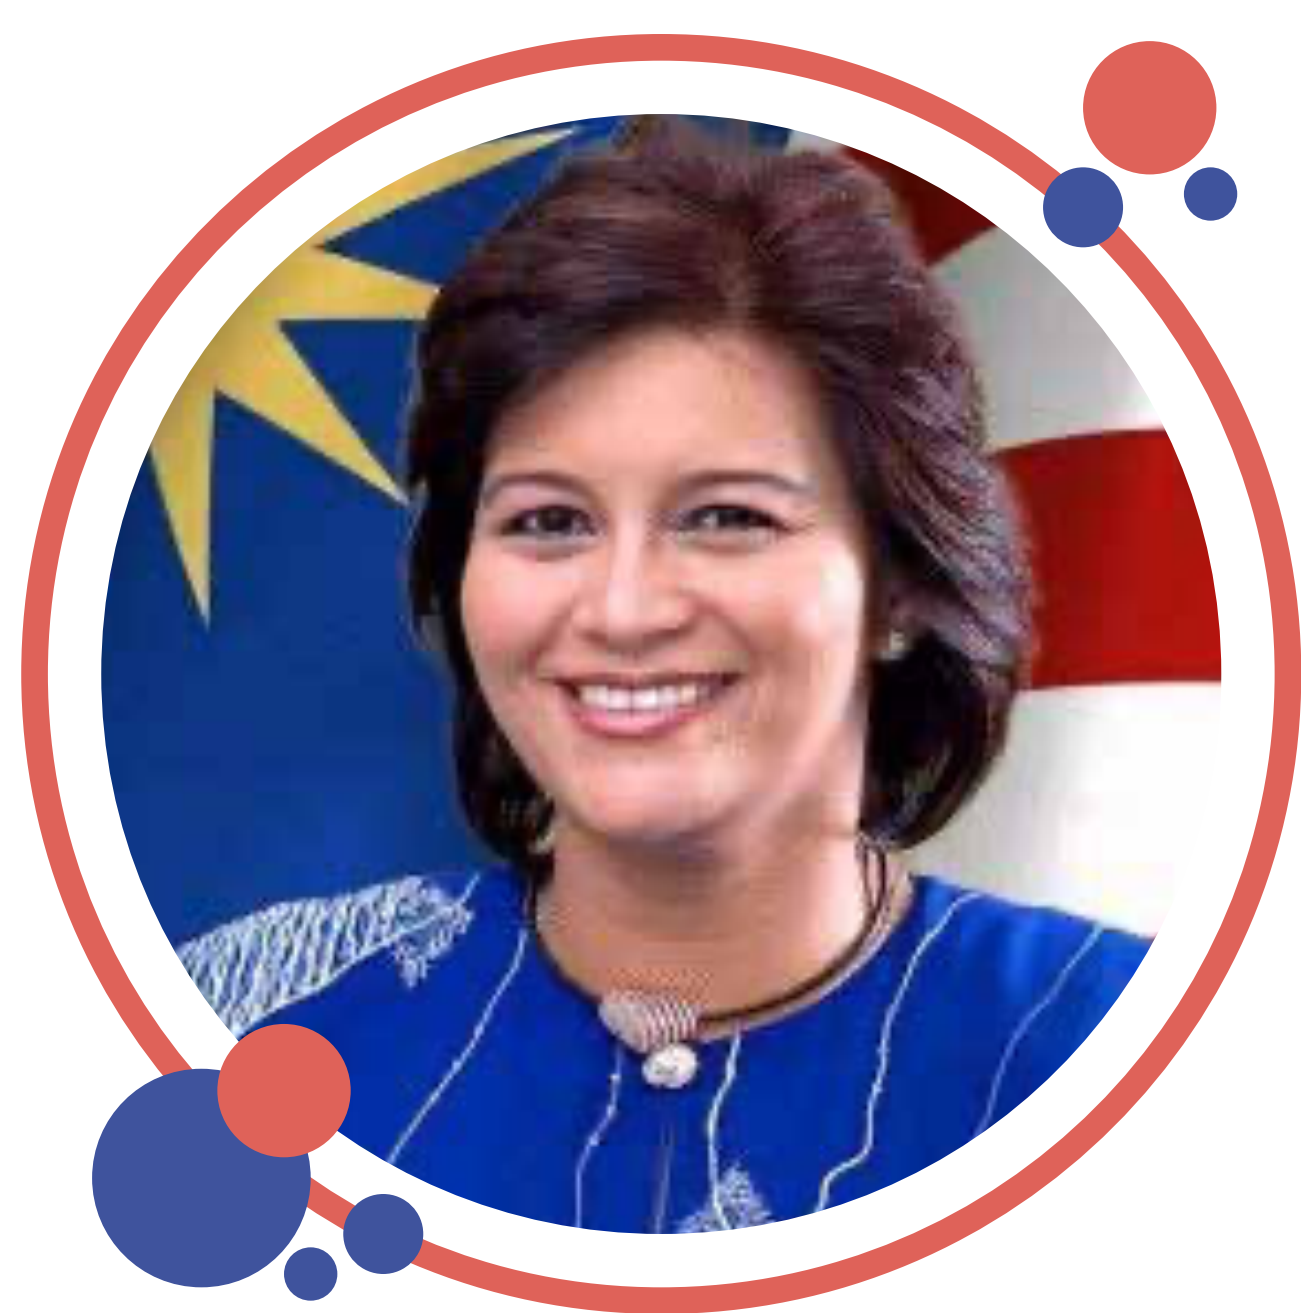

Secretary for Justice

Hong Kong Special Administrative Region of the People's Republic of China

Paul Lam has been the Secretary for Justice since 1 July 2022.

Before joining the Government, Paul was a Senior Counsel in private practice specialising in general civil and commercial proceedings, and has passed the Guangdong - Hong Kong - Macao Greater Bay Area Legal Professional Examination. He was a former Vice-Chairman of the Hong Kong Bar Association from 2014 to 2017 and the Chairman from 2017 to 2018. He sat as a Deputy Judge of the High Court of Hong Kong for short periods each year since 2015. He was once enlisted in the Panel of Arbitrators of the Shenzhen Court of International Arbitration and The China International Economic and Trade Arbitration Commission, and was once appointed by the China University of Political Science and Law in Beijing as professor.

Paul held a number of public service positions, such as Chairman of the Consumer Council, Chairman of the Administrative Appeals Board, Chairman of ICAC Operations Review Committee and Member of Independent Police Complaints Council.

H.E. Dato' Sri Azalina Binti Othman Said

Minister in the Prime Minister's Department - Law and Institutional Reform

Dato' Sri Azalina binti Othman Said is the Minister in the Prime Minister's Department (Law and Institutional Reform) with a distinguished career spanning over three decades. A holder of a Master of Laws (LLM) Degree from the London School of Economics and Political Science, she seamlessly fuses her academic prowess with practical experience to tackle some of the most pressing legal challenges of our time.

Thus far, Dato' Sri Azalina has held several ministerial positions, including Minister of Youth and Sports, Minister of Tourism, and Minister in the Prime Minister's Department. She was the first female deputy speaker of the Lower House in Parliament. Previously, she was the Special Advisor (Law and Human Rights) to the 9th Prime Minister of Malaysia. She has also chaired several parliamentary committees, notably the Parliamentary Special Select Committee on Women, Children and Community Development.

As Minister in the Prime Minister's Department (Law and Institutional Reform) in her home country, Dato' Sri Azalina has spearheaded numerous initiatives aimed at institutional reform and upholding the rule of law. Under her leadership, significant strides have been made in institutional reforms, such as the recent amendments to the Arbitration Act 2005 which aims to among others, strengthen Malaysia's position as a global hub for alternative dispute resolution. Her legislative efforts have also strengthened the protection of child witnesses through amendments to the Evidence of Child Witness Act 2007, which were passed by the Malaysian Parliament in July this year.

She is currently leading efforts to set up a single, independent statutory body that will be empowered to receive and investigate complaints of misconduct by the public service. In addition to that, she is working to introduce legislation in Malaysia aimed at enhancing online safety and tackling online harms, including cyberbullying.

Karen Cheah Yee Lynn
